London Plans to Honor Ambassador and Mrs. Harvey

English Speaking Union and Pilgrims Arrange Dinners -Arrivals.

Special Cable to The New York Herald-operight, 1921, by The New York Herald New York Herald Bareau. ! London, May 8. !

American and English friends in Lo

American and English friends in London are making extensive preparations for welcoming the new American Ambassador and Mrs. George Harvey when they arrive this week.

The English Speaking Union will give the first large dinner party for the Ambassador, and on May 19 the Pilgrims will entertain in his honor in a like manner, the Duke of Connaught presiding. Mrs. Harvey has a large circle of friends here who are anxious to receive and extend every social honor to her.

Friday for Havre, where they went and the Savoie to sail for New York, ore leaving they both said their tou-the battle fields and cemeteries in nce impressed them greatly. Mrs. in remarked she thought it would acrilege to remove the bodies from sacred domains.

mericans who have gone to Paris in-Americans who have gone to Paris inude Prof. Bashford, dean curator of mor at the Metropolitan Museum of rt, who attended the Morgan Williams action of ancient armor here; Mr. and

rs. Henry M. Day, Mrs. Frank Rose, essrs. Robert C. Ryan, James Rich, imothy J. Martin and A. L. Sylvester.
Arrivals from the Continent were Mr.
draw G. Hirschbert, who plans a two draw G. Hirschbert, who plans a two draw G. Hirschbert, who plans a Arrivals from the Continent were Mr. idney G. Hirschberg, who plans a two reeks' visit in Scotland; Mr. Stanley lawkes, by airplane; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. ones, Mr. Andrew Fletcher, president of the American Tobacco Company; Mrs.
letcher, Miss Jean Fletcher, Mr. and s. S. C. Hope and Mr. Richard E. ers of New York. Mrs. Bertha C. Mulligan, who for two cars was attached to the American Consulate in Paris, has arrived to be married to Dr. W. S. Findley. They expect to make London their home.

Miss Matilda Brownell, a New York ertist, has opened an exhibition of her caintings in the Walker Calleries.

Americans in Rome include Messars Americans in Rome include Messrs acodore P. Grosvenor and S. H. Hy-ans, Mrs. A. C. Jones and Mrs. D.

W. Lloyd. At Milan are Messrs, Alexander Bruyer and William Baldwin of New York. Sojourners in Geneva include Messrs. Percy Everett, Henry Carter, Charles Pfister and J. M. Caldwell of Americans in Paris.

Special Cable to The New York Herald. Copyright, 1921, by The New York Herald New York Herald Bureau. Paris. May 8.

New York Hernid Bureau, Paris, May 8.}
Mrs. Fletcher Webster Jewell and Miss Dorothy J. Jewell, who have given up their New York residence, have taken an apartment in Avenue Carnot. They expect to remain in Paris several years. Mr. and Mrs. John Spurgeon of Philadelphia are at the Hotel Lotti for a few weeks prior to a tour of the Continent. Mr. David W. Hope of Burlington, Vt., is at the Normandy.
Dr. Eliot C. Burrows of New York, after a month in Paris, has started on a tour of Switzerland, Italy and Southern France.

Rose wither lane, a New York au-thor, is making a two months' tour of Italy, Albania and Montenegro. Mr. John Hallook Waring, formerly of the Franklin Trust Company of New York, and Mmc. Andre Alexiade were married on Thursday. They will live its Darie

Messrs. Hugh Scott of Philadelphia d Frederic T. Munroe of Washington ve left here for Berlin.

Miss Emily Wood Married.

Mrs. William Halsey Wood of 47 Barof her daughter, Miss Emily Law Wood, to Mr. Wilson Ashley to Preparations for the spring concert of the sightless music students of the New York Lighthouse for the Blind, 111 East Fifty-ninth street, are now under way, under the direction of Miss Mary Koebler of the music department of the lighthouse. The concert is scheduled for some time next month and the programme will include selections for the organ, for two pianos, violin and vocal solos. All the students who will appear are totally blind. Their teachers also are blind. The concert is free to the public.

"AND they lived happily ever afterward." He got his job through a Heraid Want adand she got the cook from the same source.

"Adv."

Providence Notes.

Special Despatch to The New York Miss Coddard to The New York following her return from Europe. Her daughter, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, of New York returned to Providence with Mrs. Goddard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Christopher in Sister, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart M. Aldrich, at their country place at Warwick Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. I. Goddard are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry du Pont at their home in Wilmington, tree the significant of the Providence Notes.

Providence Notes.

P

Personal Intelligence.

New York. Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Schleffelin will go to Tranquillity Farm, their coun-try place in Asheville, Me., on June 1

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Jennings will give a dinner at their home to-night for former Ambassador to England and Mrs. John W. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppell and the Misses Coppell will gr. to their house at Tenafly, N. J., late this month. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Flagg have gor to their house in Dongan Hills, S. I for the summer.

Mrs. George R. D. Schieffelin, who has been visiting her son, George Schieffelin, at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., has returned to Morristown, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Douglas Sloan will arrive from Europe on the Olympic on Wednesday and go to Port Washing-ton, L. I., for the summer.

Mrs. Thornton Turner, daughter of Mrs. John G. McCullough, has gond to her country house in North Bennington, Vt., for the summer.

Mrs. Pierpont Morgan expects to go to her house in Highland Falls, N. Y., this week to remain until June 25, when she will sall for England by the Olympic.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. B. Frelinghuy sen, who have been passing a few days at the St. Regis Hotel, have returned to their home in Morristown, N. J. The Messrs. John and Borden Harriman will return to school at Cheshire.
Conn.. to-day after a short stay with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harricome a

Mrs. Henry T. Oxnard gave a lunch-

Miss Elizabeth White of Baltimore is risiting Miss Virginia Harrison at her tome on Kalorama road.

The Secretary of the British Embassy and Mrs. R. Leslie Cragie had a dinner last night for their guest, Miss Ellen Thomas of Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. Lawrence C. Phipps, wife of Senator Phipps of Colorado, reached Washington yesterday after spending some months in California. Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell will sail for Europe on Thursday to join her daugh-ter, Miss Mildred Bromwell, who now is Miss Antoinette Graves, who has been visiting in Connecticut and New York for two weeks, returned to Washington yesterday and again is with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood.

Mr. Reginald D. Foster, who came from New York to attend the reception given by Speaker of the House and Mrs. Gillett, for the Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge, has returned to Boston. Mr. Foster is the flance of Mrs. Gillett's daughter, Miss Frances Hoar.

MRS. DELOS BLODGETT'S DAUGHTER IS ENGAGED

Miss Monica Blodgett to Be Bride of Capt. Gaillard.

New York Herald Bureau. } Washington, D. C., May 8. } Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett announces the Monica P. Blodgett to Capt. David St. P. Gaillard, U. S. A. He is on duty in DuBose Galllard. His father was the with Major-Gen. Goethals in building the Panama Canal. Miss Blodgett was in-troduced to society last year.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

t yesterday announced the control of the daughter, Miss Emily Vood, to Mr. Wilson Ashley toon of Mrs. Burrows and the how of Newburyport, is at the Red Ashley Burrows of Yonkers, Saturday, in Corpus Christi are Mrs. Frederick R. Hutton and Mrs. Fre bridge while alterations are being in the house she bought last year.

THIS (MONDAY) AFTERNOON AT 2:15

CONTINUING TCMORROW (TUESDAY)

Wednesday and Thursday at the Same Hour At The American Art Galleries Madison Square South, New York

TO BE SOLD AT UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC SALE

THE EXTENSIVE AND VALUABLE

COLLECTION OF

ANTIQUE FURNITURE

AND OTHER ARTISTIC PROPERTY

BELONGING TO THE ESTATE OF THE WIDELY

HENRY KOOPMAN

Senior Member of the Firm of H. Koopman & Son

Whose Business Was Originally Established in New York in 1883 NOW ON FREE VIEW 9 A. M. UNTIL 5 P. M.

The Sale Will Be Conducted by Mr. THOMAS E. KIRBY and his assistants, MR. OTTO BEENET and MR. H. H. PARKE AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers

Madison Sq. South, Entrance 6 E. 23d Street, New York.

NOW ON EXHIBITION IN

James P. Silo & Son, Auctioneers. UNRESTRICTED ESTATE SALES OF

FURNITURE

Room Suites, Dining and Bedroom Sets, many Tapestry Pillows, Tex-tiles, China, Glassware, etc.

ON EXHIBITION TO-BAY MON-BAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, MAY 9TH, 10TH AND 11TH Sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday

FIVE NEW OPERAS, ONE GERMAN, Miss Pola Negri TO BE PRODUCED NEXT SEASON Seductive Vampire

Miss Yvonne d'Arle.

MEET ACTOR IN DEBATE

Offers to Discuss His Charges

Against Stage.

preachers.
"So far as this challenge about which one of the theatres or here, upon the pulpit for a full and frank discussion of these things."

FOLLIES BALL HELD FOR

to Theatre Roof.

An assembly that packed the New Am-spectacle.

Taken altogether it was an extensive entertainment and the charity for which it was designed was swelled by many dollars.

"Honeydew" to Return.

Joe Weber's production, "Honeydew," the musical comedy with score by Efrem Zimbalist, which recently ran for twenty-six weeks at the Casino Theatre, will return with the same cast to that theatre for a spring engagement beginning next Monday evening.

Arrivals at Gedney Farm.

DR. STRATON WOULD

General Manager Gatti-Casazza Announces Metropolitan's Plans for 1921-1922.

Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, has season of 1921-1922 and will sail for season of 1921-1922 and will sail for Italy this week on board the Taormina. He will visit the larger cities in Italy. France, Austria and Germany and will return about the end of September.

In a statement made yesterday regarding his plans for next season he said he would produce five new Operas, one of which will be sung in German. He also formally announced the engagement of five American singers, one of whom is Miss Yvonne d'Arle, soprano, who was formerly a cabaret singer. The news of her engagement was published several weeks ago.

Miss D'Arle, whose rise to grand opera is attributed to her devotion to study, first appeared in Broadway entertainments in 1916. She sang in the Palais Royal, the Moulin Rouge, Thomas Heally's Golden Glades and in Raymond Hitchcock's "Beauty Shop." About a year ago she went abroad for study, and on her return two months ago went through a test which won her the engagement at the Metropolitan.

"First of all." said Mr. Gatti, "I wish to thank the American public for its extraordinary support during the season just closed, and I also desire to thank all my coworkers, whose good will and discipline have permitted me to overcome all the difficulties of the last season.

"I wish also to send an affectionate greeting to my dear friend, Enrico Caruso, who without any doubt will again take his glorious post at the Metropoli-

"During next season the following new operas will be given:
"'Le Roi d'Ys,' in French, book by Edouard Beau and music by Edouard Lalo.

Rev. Dr. John R. Straton, preaching last night in the Calvary Baptist Church, "'Die Tote Stadt,' in German, libretto by Paul Schott, taken from Bruges la Morte,' by Rodenbach, music by Enrich Wolfang Korngold. "'Snegourotchka,' in French, from a poem by Ostrowski, music by Nicholas Rimsky-Korsakoff. in his church for a discussion of his charges. Speaking of the theatre issue, Dr. Straton said in part:
"I noticed that one of the actors, in his effort to rebut my charges against the theatre, declares that statistics show there are more preschere in the act.

'Cosi Fan Tutte,' in Italian, libretto d'Ormeville and A. Zanardini, music by Alfredo Catalani.

'There will also be revivals of 'La Navarraise,' by Jules Massenet, in French, and of Emnani' and 'Traviata,' by Gluseppe Verdi, in Italian, with entirely new mise-en-scene. 'Die Walkure,' by Wagner, will also be produced in German.

trely new mise-en-scene. Die walkure, by Wagner, will also be produced in German.

"I take pleasure in announcing the engagement of Mme. Amelita Galil-Curci and Mr. Titta Ruffo, two artists who do not need any introduction; also the engagement of Mme. Marie Jeritza of the Vienna Opera, a famous artist, who has scored great successes in some of the most important European theatres.

"The two coloratura sopranos, Mme.
Selma Kurz and Mme. Angeles Ottein of the Buenos Aires Opera, will sing some performances.

"The French repertoire will be conducted during the first half of the seson by Mr. Albert Wolff, who has been recently appointed musical director of the Opera Comique of Paris. For the second half of the season Mr. Louis Hasselmans, also a conductor of the Opera Comique, has been engaged."

Mr. Gatti also has engaged the following American artists: Miss Grace Anthony, soprano: Miss Yvoine D'Arle, soprano: Miss Viola Philo, soprano; Miss Myrtle Schaaf, mezzo-soprano, and Mr.
George Meader, a lyric and buffo tenor,

German theatres.

Two European singers have also been added to the company, Manuel Salazar, the Spanish tenor, who is already well known to the American public, and Louis Rozsa, a barytone of the National Opera of Budapest.

The artists who have been reengage Burrows, son of Mrs. Burrows and the late Wilson Ashley Burrows and the late Wilson Ashley Burrows and the late Wilson Ashley Burrows of Yonkers, N. Y. on Saturday, in Corpus Christit Church, Weat Sixty-ninth street. The Rev. L. C. Rich performed the ceremony. The maid of honor and only attendant was Miss Gladys M. Clay of Philadelphia.

The bride's oldest brother, Mr. W. Halsey Wood, gave his sister away and the best man was the other brother, Mr. Alexander H. Wood. The ushers were Mr. Walter Sheppard of Yonkers, N. Y.; Mr. W. E. Anthony, Mr. Robert Robbins of New York and Mr. Roger Munsleto of Maplewood, N. J.

Miss Wood's father was the late William Halsey Wood, church architect. Mr. Burrows served two years in the war, being in Italy part of the time as Sergean-Halgor under Major F. H. La Guardia, now President of the Board of Aldermen. Mr. and Mrs. Burrows will live in New York.

Mrs. Scipffeld Andrews will live in New York and Mrs. Scipffeld Andrews will live in New York.

Mrs. Clinton Hoadley Crane of New York and Mrs. Clinton Hoadley Crane of New York and Mrs. Clinton Hoadley Crane of New York and Mrs. Electus Darwin Litch-lied, who were visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gourlay, at Stockbridge, are to spend the aummer in England.

Mrs. William A. Sinter of Washington, with Mrs. White of London, is at the Red Live in Lenox while inspect.

Mrs. Scipffeld Andrews were Introduced to augment the bill. One of New York and Mrs. Captal Andrews Jones of New York and Mrs. Austen Captal Andrews and Sister away and the best man Lucrezia Bori, Cora Chase, Ellen Dalossy, Florence Easton, Minnie Egendro, Minnie Egendro, Mrs. Gladelphia.

Mrs. Clinton Hoadley Crane of New York and Mrs. Austen Fox Rigas in Stocktridge.

Mrs. Alexander H. Wood. The ushers were lived and Mrs. Austen Fox Rigas in Stocktridge.

Mrs. Alexander H. Wood. The ushers were lived and Mrs. Austen Fox Rigas and Mark Curran and Gapt. Aurona Mrs. Clinton.

Mrs. William A. Slinter of Washington and Mrs. Austen Fox Rigas and anos-Frances Alda, Gladys Ax-

Baritones: Chief Caupolican, Thomas Chalmers, Louis d'Angelo, Giuseppe Chalmers, Louis d'Angelo, Giuseppe Danise, Guiseppe de Luca, Marlo Lau-renti, Robert Leonhardt, Milio Picco, Vincenzo Reschiglian, Carl Schlegel, Antonio Scotti, Clarence Whitehill, Renato Zanelli.

Renato Zanelli.

Bassos: Paolo Ananian, Robert Blass, Adamo Didur, William Gustafson, Pompillo Malatesta, Jose Mardones, Glovanni Martino, Leon Rothier.
Conductors: Artur Bodanzky, Roberto Moranzoni, Gennaro Papi, Albert Wolff.

Chorus master, Giulio Setti.

Technical director, Edward Siedle.
Stage director, Samuel Thewman.
Stage manager, Armando Agnini.
Premiere danseuse and ballet misress, Rosina Galli. miere danseur, Giuseppe Bonfiglio. danseuses, Florence Rudolph and

Antique and Modern

Comprising Spanish and Italian Chairs, Tables, etc., Overstuffed Living

May 12, 13 & 14, at 2 P. M. each day in "Gypsy Love"

Film Star in 'Carmen' Adaptation Puts a Meaning in Every Line of Her Role.

showed her using her eyes in the French comment, a feet which the press presty well hammered home by now.

It invites comparison, as though challength any one to prove that a "Care" which casts a vel over the fact length any one to prove that a "Care" which casts a vel over the fact length any one to prove that a "Care" which casts a vel over the fact length any one to prove that a "Care" which casts a vel over the fact length any one to prove that a "Care" which casts a vel over the fact length and the family can't know the fact of the more of the fact of the fact look of the fact l who heroically throws himself into the breach and offers his talents for such a task. But I will say this, that if the Actors' Equity Association or some other responsible group within their ranks will select a representative I will be more than glad to meet him upon the platform of Carnegie Hall, the Town Hall, one of the theatres or here upon the

ZIEGFELD CHARITY FUND The feature is surrounded by a colorful and appropriate supplementary bill, with Von Suppe's "Isabella" overture and a Sevillian prologue in which Carlo Ferretti appears with a chorus, and there is Larry Semon's latest comedy, "The Rent Collector," which is messy and, therefore, merry.

Norman Kerry deposition in the leading roles, while ittie Rita Rogan again capitalizes juvenility.

A Vitagraph comedy, "The Tourist,"
A Vitagraph comedy, "The Tourist," Flotow's "Martha" and a solo by Edoardo Albano are additional food for Entertainment Draws Crowd

To See "J'Accuse."

An assembly that picked the New Amsterdam Theatre roof to its utmost last night attended the annual Follies Ball for the benefit of the ill and needy chorus members of the "Ziegfeld Follies" and other Ziegfeld organizations. "J'Accuse," the French motion picture by Abel Gance, which was imported by Marc Klaw, will be shown in this country for the first time to-morrow night at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Among those who have accepted Mr. Klaw's Invitation to be present are Ernest Iselin, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Albert Stokes, Charles D. Potter, G. F. Scot-Stokes, Charles D. Potter, G. F. Scot-In addition to dancing to the strains of Max Fisher's orchestra, further enter-tainment was offered in the nature of a one of the comedy features of the engree of the eng tier, Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, Alexander Lambert, Samuel Goldwyn, William A. deliver an address on "Trees as Me-Brady, Marcus Loew and George B. Van Cleve.

Summer Run for "Scandals of 1921."

Randall and Mary Eaton, which was one of the big hits of the "Follies." This was followed by the "Hold Me" number and a specialty dance by Doris Eaton, Olive Vaughn, Leonera Baron and Helen Shea. When the performers from "The Midnight Frolic" took up the burden of the entertainment Jack Hanley, the silent consoling integler, saye his act. a Ben George White is already preparing for is "Scandals of 1921," the third of his annual reviews, which is destined for a summer run at the Broadway Theatre. summer run at the Broadway Theatre.
Preliminary rehearsals and the engaging of the chorus will begin to-day. A new librettist will be brought in this year's production in the person of Bugs Baer, newspaper cartoonist. The music has entertalnment Jack Hanley, the silent comedian juggler, gave his act, a Ben All Haggin pastel was disclosed and Van and Schenck did their piano turn. Miss Bee Palmer sang and shimmled and Miss Edythe Baker played. Several of the more pretentious numbers from the "Frolic" were also introduced. These comprised "The Love Mill," "The Painted Butterfly," "The Tug o' War," "The Ziesfeld Paper Dolls," "Gondoller." "The Little Red Book" and the "St. Moritz" spectacle. been written by George Gershwin and the lyrics by Arthur Jackson. Herbert Ward is the art director. Miss Ann Pen-nington again will be the featured mem-ber of the cast.

Notes of the Theatres.

"Phoobe of Quality Street," the musical excition of Sir James M. Barrie's romantic comedy "Quality Street," by Edward De-sney Dunn and Walter Kollo, will have its metrosolan premiere at the Shubet Theatre o-night."

to-night.

The "Dumbella" company, formerly the official entertainment corps of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and for the last two years a musical comedy attraction, will present its revue, "Biff! Bing! Bang!" at the Ambassador Theatre to-night, Each member of the company is a soldier who has seen at least eighteen months active service. wen at least eighteen months' active service,

"The Bird of Paradise," Richard Waiton Tully's Hawaiian romance, with Miss Piorence Reckwell in the title role, will be the attraction this week at the Shubert-Riviera.

The Century Theatre will be dark to-night, nit will reopen to-merrow night with the intest Oscar Straus operetta, "The Last Waits," with Miss Eleanor Painter in the prima donna role.

John Golden has persunded Nathantel Hartwig to return to the stage in a leading natt with his "Three Wise Feols" company next season. He once was in the same company with Mr. Golden in support of Miss Marie Wainwright.

"Enter Madame" enters upon its last two weeks at the Fulton Theatre to-day.
Stanley Howlett, who is playing with

Arrivals at Gedney Farm.

Special Despaich to The New York Herald.
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May S.—Mr.
and Mrs. Otto E. Loesch of Hot Springs, Va., have returned to Gedney Farm
Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNeir also have joined the all summer colony there, coming from Bronxville. Other arrivals for extended stays include Mr.
and Mrs. L. H. Loose and Mrs. George F. Pomelee, Brooklyn; Mrs. W. A. Norton and Mrs. William Austin, Norwich, Conn. The Misses Whittlesey, Mrs. H.
C. Thomas and Miss Chamberlain, New Britain, Conn.; Mrs. Joseph N. Palmer, Mrs. E. P. Wade, Newton, Mass.; Mr.
and Mrs. Albert L. Rowland, Mr. Frederick M. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. James P.
Bradt and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Boch of New York.

Subject to owner's approval, will sublet all or part of 2,200 square feet of light, airy office space in No. 2 Rector St. (U. S. Express Building).

The space is adaptable as it is for law or insurance offices; has three good size private rooms, and large general office.

Members of New York Curb Market will find space most conveniently located for them.

Lease runs to 1925. Rent reasonable. Address

ALBERT FRANK & CO., Advertising Agents,

14 Stone St., New York City.

Settle Problems in Two New Pictures

Child Prodigies

Have Roles in First Knoblock Film and a Gouverneur Morris Story.

which Miss Pola Negri appeared here, concerned this week in trying to put the shows her in spit curls. This First Na- having been inspired by Scriptural verse. tional attraction, directed by Ernst Lu- William De Mille's "The Lost Romance," bitsch, who produced that initial Teutonic success, is the third screen version of "Carmen," a fact which the preas agent has pretty well hammered home by now.

It invites comparison, as though challeasters are controlled to the screen by Edward Knoblock, and is called by Paramount the initial "Famous Authors-Famous Directors" picmous Authors-Famous Directors' picthe fact that no one is starred in the company.

Hampden to Recite Seeger Poem. On next Monday at the planting of the memorial tree in Washington Square in memory of the young American poet. Alan Seeger, who was killed at Belloy-en-Santerre on July 4, 1916, while fighting with the French Foreign Legion, Walter Hampden, who is playing at the Broadhurst Theatre, will recite the poet's poem, "I Have a Rendezvous with Death," written the winter previous to bis death. The city is donating the tree tion of the stellar role in the "Mr. Potsash" series of comedy successes. Mr.

Bernard will appear in a new play by Aaron Hoffman entitled "Two Blocks Away," which will open at the Apollo Theatre in Atlantic City on Monday evening, May 23. The company supporting
Mr. Bernard includes Dodson L. Mitchell, John Rutherford, Misses Vivian Tobin and Margaret Linden and Wallace
On May 5. HAGGERTY, 248 E. 61st. bin and Margaret Linden and Wallace Erskine. The play will be seen in New York early in the autumn.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR STARR J. MURPHY

Secretary Hughes Sends Telegram to Montclair Meeting.

Memorial services were held yesterday in the First Congregational Church, Montclair, for Starr J. Murphy, formerly personal counsel for John D. Rockefeller, who died April 14 in Daytona, Fia. George E. Vincent, chalrman of the general educational board of the Rockefeller Foundation; Erman J. Ridgway and Luis M. Start State general educational board of the Rocke-feller Foundation; Erman J. Ridgway and Louis F. Dodd, former Mayor of Montolair, were the speakers. George Wellwood Murray, who presided, rend a telegram from Secretary of State

n telegram from Secretary of State Hughes.

Mr. Hughes stated that he met Mr.
Murphy in the full of 1880, when the latter was a senior at Amherst College, and they studied together at College,
the studied together at College,
the State of Shaw evening, May 7, on East 58th
st. Liberal reward. Tel. 5078 Plaza.

MARRIED.

MARRIED.

MASS FOR LIEUT. DEEVY. A solemn high mass of requiem will be A solemn high mass of requiem will be sung Wednesday in the Roman Catholic Church of All Saints, Harlem, for Lieut. William J. Deevy, of the Eighteenth Infantry, killed in action in 1918 at Soissons, France. The body was one of those returned to the United States last week. The Rev. Edward J. Deevy, brother of the deceased, will officiate at the ceremonles attending the funeral and six officers of the Eighteenth will act as pall-bearers. Lieut Deevy was a son of the late Police Capt. Jefferson Deevy.

Ir. Titus Munson Coan.

Dr. Titus Munson Coan.

Dr. Titus Munson Coan, author and writer on medical and other subjects and a collaborator on the Standard Dictionary, published by Funk & Warmalls, died yesterday at his home, 430 West

Dr. Titus Munawiter on medical and business and a collaborator on the Standard Dr. and Standard Standard Dr. and Standard Standard Dr. and Standard Dr. and course at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in this city in 1861, and dur-ing the civil war served for two years in army hospitals and then as assistant surgeon in Admiral Farragut's squadron. Following the war Dr. Coan took up ilterary work in this city. He founded the New York Bureau of Revision in 1880 and was editor of Topics of the Time. He wrote several books on Time. He wrote several books on Hawaii and contributed to literary and medical publications. He was a member of the Century Club, the Authors Club and the Loyal Legion.

James W. Perry.

James W. Perry, a lawyer formerly associated in practice with Presiden Chester A. Arthur, died yesterday after a long illness in his home at 120 Cres-cent avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

cent avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Mr. Perry was born in New York city seventy-three years ago. He was a graduate of the English and Classical Institute in Providence, R. I., and Brown University. From the latter institution he received his master's degree. He was graduated from the Columbia Law School in 1875 and immediately admitted to the bar. Shortly after he became a member of the firm of Knevals & Perry.

Fioretta Thea La Guardia, infant daughter of Fiorello H. La Guardia, president of the Board of Aldermen, died yesterday in Rooseveit Hospital of spinal meningitis. Mrs. La Guardia has suffered a breakdown and is under medi-cal care in her home, 39 Charles street.

LOST AND FOUND.

will be paid for the return of octagon shaped platinum broods containing 3 large dia-monds in centre and numerous small ones, lost April 25, at or between Hotel Astor and $2d st, CHARLTON & CO., 585 5th av.

poem, "I Have a Rendezvous with Death," written the winter previous to bis death. The city is donating the tree and the dedication will be under the auspices of the Writers' Club. In addition tion to Mr. Hampden's recitation Francis Gallatin, Commissioner of Parks, will deliver an address on "Trees as Memorials."

New Play for Barney Bernard.
Charles Dillingham announced yesterday the appearance in the future under the Dillingham management of Barney Bernard, famous through his impersonation of the stellar role in the "Mr. Potasis" series of comedy successes. Mr.

LOST-Diamond sunburst, Greeley Theatre, May 5; liberal reward, Phone Bergen 4290, LOST-Man's gold watch with fob; reward, Call Flatbush 8342-J.

Call Flatbush S342-J.

$100 REWARD

for return of beaded bag containing diamond har pin with 61 diamonds, ring, sapphire, surrounded by 42 diamonds, is fancy platfinum ring, containing 33 diamonds, lost April 3, between West Tist st. and shopping district or in taxicab. BLACK, STARR & FROST, 5th av. and 48th st.

$100 REWARD

for return of bar pin containing 5 emeralds and 30 small diamonds, lost April 29, between East 53d and shopping district. I. H. & B. H. WEINBERG, 665 5th av.

$100 REWARD

LOST-Small tan leather bag containing golf clothes; fell off taxleab Sunday at 9:45 A. hetween 5:st a: and Park av-and Grand Central Station; liberal reward. Return Ambassador Hotel.

KING-LOCKWOOD.-On Saturday, May 7, 1921, at St. George's Church, by the Right Rev. Dr. Rhinelander, Blahop of Pennsylvania, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Reliand, rector of St. George's, Mary Isabel, daughter of Mrs. M. 1. Lockwood, to Le Roy King.

DIED.

Keyser, Catherine Lawson, Eleanor Leichte, John Leichter, Julis Lynch, Joseph A. Neebit, Elizabeth C. O'Connor, Mary Perry, James W. Salter, A. O'derin Scharmann, Abbis Steindler, Robert M. Siropp, Clara Voronoff, Evelyn B. Wilmurt, Florence R. Wood, Lawtia M. Worma, Abraham

wood Cemetery, at convenience. IEDERIMAN.—The Mendelsshon Boclety requests its officers at to attend the funeral of our in Fred E. Biederman, Tuesday, F. M., from Rothschild's Fune 208 Lenox av.

Henry Wallach, Fin. Secv.

flowers.

FINLAY -Suddenly on Saturday, May 7, 1921, Samuel Lash Finlay, beloved husband of Frances Smith, in his 64th year Funeral services at his late home, 20 Eighth av., Brooklyn, on Monday, May 9 day, May 9, at 2 P. M.

IVEY.—On Sunday, May 8, 1921, at Montclair, N. J., Louis O. Ivey, son of the late Henry Ivey and the late Margaret Ivey and husband of the late Ella Whitlock Ivey. Funeral services at St. Luke's Episcopai Church, Montelair, N. J., on Tuesday morning, May 10, at 11:45 o'clock,
D., L. and W. train from Hoboken 10:52
A. M., daylight saving time. Interment private.

private.

KATZ.—Lillian Blanche (nee Schalder), beloved wife of Harry Katz, on Sunday, May S, 1921. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock, at her late residence, 297 East 188th st. Interment private.

KEYSER.—On Saturday, May 7, 1921, Catherine, wife of the late Ernest Keyser, Jr. Funeral services will be held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Helica on Tuesday at 2 P, M. Interment in Woodland Cemetery, Stamford, Conn.

LAWSON.—Eleanor. Campbell Funeral

Church, B'way, 66th st. Monday, 5 P. M.
LEICHLE.—In Millford, Conn., or May T.
1921. John Leichle, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, Funeral services will be held at Ford's funeral chapel, Riverstreet, Milford, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Services at Fresh Fond on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

LEICHTER.—Julia, on May 8, 1921, beloved wife of Solomon and dear mother of Benjamin, Jacob, Morris, Emelle, Gertrude and Milton, in her 74th year, Services at her late home, 552 West 141st st., Tuesday, May 10, at 1 P. M. Funeral
private, New Haven papers please copy.
LYNCH—Cn. May 7, after a lingering till.

private. New Haven papers please copy.
LYNCH.—On May 7, after a lingering in ness, Joseph A, Lynch, ron of James B Lynch. Funeral from the residence of his father, 35 Jefferson street. Nyack. N. Y., on Tuesday; thence to St. Ana. Church, where mass will be celebrated at 10450 A. M.

SALTER.—On May 7, 1921, at his residence, 2225 Sedgwick av., Bronx., A. Oldrin Sal-ter, helowed father of Violette Eds Pierce, Funcal private at the convenience of family.

SCHARMANN.—Abbie, on Sunday, May 8, in her 19th year, at her home, 96 Sunny-nide av., Brooklyn, beloved daughter of the late Julius and Abbie and slater of Julius Scharmann and adopted daughter, of Lester and Lavinia Mocradier, Requiem mass at 8t. Maiachy's Church at 9:30 A. M., Wednesday, May 11. Interment in Lutheran Cemetery.

STEINDLER.—Bohert M. Steindler, dearly beloved husband of Carolyn Steindler and brother of D. M. Steindler, Puneral from his late residence, 245 West 98th st., on Tuesday morning, May 10, at 10:30. Interment private.

Tuesday morning, May 10, at 10:30. Interment private.

STROPP.—On May 7. in her 78th year, Clara, beloved mother of Hermine Kelly Jehanna Gaige and Leon E. Stropp. Services at her late residence, 73. Hamilton av., Tonkers, Monday eventing at 8 o'clock. Funeral private.

VORNONFF.—On Thursday, March 3, 1921, at Paris, France, Evelyn Bostwick, wife of Dr. Serge Voronoff and daughter of the late Jahoz A. and Helen C. Bostwick, Interment family vault, Woodlawn Cemetery, on Tuesday, May 10, at 10:30 A. M. WILMURT.—Suddenly on May 7. Florence Ranous, beloved wife of Samuel K. Wilmurt. Funeral services at her late residence, 506 West 113th street, Monday evening, May 9, at 8 o'clock.

WOOD.—On May 7, Luatta M. Wood, daughter of May E. and the late Henry H. Wood of 1400 Betford av., Brooklyn, Funeral services at Woodlawn Cemetery Chapel, Jeroma av., Wednesday, 4:15 P. M. Words, Alexandron, on Sunday, May 8, at M. Marcham, Canaday, May 8, at M. Marcham, Canaday, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, C. Marcham, C. Marcham, C. Marcham, May 9, A. A. Marcham, On Sunday, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, C. Marcham, C. Marcham, C. Marcham, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, May 8, at M. Marcham, C. Marcham, C.

WORMS.—Abraham, on Sunday, May S, at his residence, 1205 Jefferson av. Brook-lyn, beloved hushand of the late Carrie and father of Juliet, Harold and Ferdi-nand. Notice of funeral later.

IN MEMORIAM.

HACKER.—In loving memory of my beloved husband and bur dear father, Bernard H. Hacker, who died May 19, 1918. Ella Hacker and children.

"Campbell Service" Call "Columbus $200" "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Inc. 1970 Broadway at 66th St. Downtown Office, 23d St. & 8th Av.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SECURE MOUNT HOPE CEMETERY

Easily reached by trolley or train.
CONVENIENT PAYMENTS IF DESIRED. Inspection Invited.

Booklet upon Request. Phone 2000 Harlem

Non-Sectarian. Westchester Co. Natural beauty unsurpassed.

A FAMILY BURIAL PLOT IN

New York Office: 290 Lenox Ave.